Rockingham Asks Summer Dates

Concord, N. H., Feb. 28 (AP).—George W. Conway, chairman of the state racing commission, announced today that Rockingham has filed a request for 60 days of racing, including an 18-day Summer meet. The racing dates, which are expected to be approved, will run from July 24 to Aug. 12, and from Oct. 2 to Nov. 18, Conway said.

place as My Malcha sneaked home third. Jimmie paid his backers a nifty $11.40.

The sixth was taken by Step Across, Bobby Permane up, when it beat the odds-on favorite, Directory, by a nose in a photo. Getting away third, Step Across stayed right there as Directory and Lassie Sue battled for the lead.

NIPPED AT WIRE

Permane waited until the stretch to make his bid, and when he did, he closed in on the two leaders and barely nipped them at the wire. The victory rewarded his backers with $14.90.

Permane got a double when he won with Azimuth in the seventh. Using the same tactics, hanging back until the stretch, he took this one going away by two lengths from Ranger II for a $10.40 return. Peep Show was third.

E p a m i n o n d u s , Roberts up, strolled away with the day's final outing, beating out Bouncing and Boris N. for $8.50.

Navy has more than the advantage of a mental complex, though. It has a strong strain of "Vitamin B-Complex"—something the Soldiers haven't run up against this season. Every one of Army's victories has been a simple case of superior stamina. They're not particularly "cute" or hot shots, but it's their ability to run the younger "city bred" boys into the ground that makes the marvelously conditioned Cadets winners. This time, however, they're tangling with an equally rugged gang which promises not to wilt in the second half.

Assuming that the crashing Cadets do charge through Navy, you then come up against the pertinent matter of time. Acceptance of the NCAA bid would involve a three-night stand at the Garden, were Army to make the East-West finals. Under the three-year speed-up program at West Point, study time is immeasurably precious. Only on Saturdays do the Cadets have a few spare hours because classes end at 12:30 rather than the usual 3:30. Since the NCAA dates are Friday, Saturday and Tuesday (March 24-25-28), the Friday and Tuesday games would conflict somewhat with the two-hour evening study period which is compulsory for all Cadets.

Still, when the football team travels, they manage to cram in their bookwork on the trains. But, in trying to predict what step the Army Athletic Board will take, you can't figure on logic or precedent. After all, didn't Army's gridders travel to New York for clashes with Notre Dame and Penn? Didn't they go to Philly to meet Penn? Yet when it came to the Army-Navy game, the classic was closeted at West Point.

You figure it out while we get busy on form 1040.
